

Momentum Summit III

January 28 & 29

Classic Center, Athens Georgia

USG Momentum Year

Making a purposeful program choice

Creating a productive Academic Mindset

Attempting the first 30 hours of a Clear Pathway

Attempting 9 hours in Academic Focus

Complete initial English and Math

Today's Goals

- Momentum Summit III Overview
- Getting ready for the Summit
 - Self-reflection
 - Program Development
- Building the team
- Logistics

Two Big Goals

Day 1

Develop a Sustainability Plan for the Momentum Year

Day 2

Develop a plan for advancing the work and moving it across the institution and beyond the first year (the Momentum Approach)

Event Logistics

- 2 days
- At the Classic Center in Athens
- Teams of up to 15
- Hotels and registration will be available no later than Dec. 9

Teams:

- Cabinet-level leadership
- Faculty/staff/administrators tied to the work you need to do at the Summit.

Working Backward...

Tentative Schedule

Sustainability plan development

Tuesday, January 28

10 am – 5 pm

Planning the Momentum Approach

Wednesday, January 29

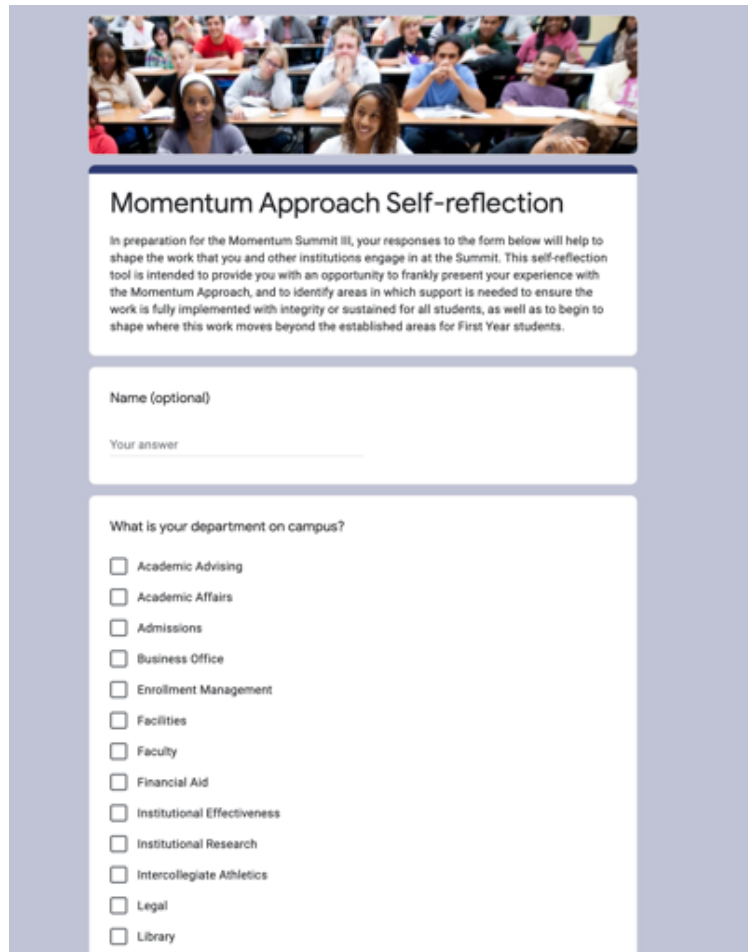

8 am – 3:30 pm

- Half of the Summit will be dedicated to sharing experiences across the state and with identified national experts.
- The remaining time is set aside for team planning time.
- To ensure alignment of breakout sessions to institutional interests, we'll need your input

Self-reflection Tool

- Google Form
- Use it as broadly or narrowly as you like
- Intended to help you identify areas of success and opportunity on your campus
- USG staff is available for consultation and support of your discussions
- Encourage tying this to conversations at department/school level
- Results should inform your plans for the Summit
- We will use the results to shape the work the System Office does at the Summit and with partner groups in 2020

Self-reflection Tool

Momentum Approach Self-reflection

In preparation for the Momentum Summit III, your responses to the form below will help to shape the work that you and other institutions engage in at the Summit. This self-reflection tool is intended to provide you with an opportunity to frankly present your experience with the Momentum Approach, and to identify areas in which support is needed to ensure the work is fully implemented with integrity or sustained for all students, as well as to begin to shape where this work moves beyond the established areas for First Year students.

Name (optional)
Your answer

What is your department on campus?

- Academic Advising
- Academic Affairs
- Admissions
- Business Office
- Enrollment Management
- Facilities
- Faculty
- Financial Aid
- Institutional Effectiveness
- Institutional Research
- Intercollegiate Athletics
- Legal
- Library

- Links are specific to campus.
- You can customize the form for your local needs/interests (email Jonathan with your edits)
- Pair with conversations on campus
- The Momentum "course" is still available as a resource

<https://momentum.completenga.org>

Self-reflection Tool

Momentum Approach Self-reflection

In preparation for the Momentum Summit III, your responses to the form below will help to shape the work that you and other institutions engage in at the Summit. This self-reflection tool is intended to provide you with an opportunity to frankly present your experience with the Momentum Approach, and to identify areas in which support is needed to ensure the work is fully implemented with integrity or sustained for all students, as well as to begin to shape where this work moves beyond the established areas for First Year students.

Name (optional)
Your answer

What is your department on campus?

- Academic Advising
- Academic Affairs
- Admissions
- Business Office
- Enrollment Management
- Facilities
- Faculty
- Financial Aid
- Institutional Effectiveness
- Institutional Research
- Intercollegiate Athletics
- Legal
- Library

- You will be able to see your responses in a Google Sheet (we hope)
- Your survey link will be sent out to you by tomorrow
- Set a deadline on your campus for when responses need to be in.

Your Momentum Proposal

- Using the survey and discussions on your campus, develop responses to shape the work you want to do and the team you will bring to the Summit.
- We will distribute a link to Provosts for the Summit Proposal form no later than November 20
- Template is due back to the System Office by Monday, December 9

Registration

- Registration will be open by December 9.
- Limited block housing will be available in area hotels
- An announcement will be sent out after Thanksgiving as a reminder.

Questions